

Cambridge Jan 7th 49

My dear Anne I have very delightful letters from Maria, which I shall rejoice to read to you. I will not give up the hope of seeing you here on Wednesday I want to have every one of you

Lucia & Emma, Charles & Maria, would come & pass the day & night with us at which I greatly rejoice. Now I have another single bed for you at Deborah & the other might return to Boston with Mr Quincy. He has promised to I will be at your service of course come, but I will not torment you I anxiously express my wishes.

They would not let me go in to the board meeting yesterday but I dare say you did not want me. I wish much to hear all about the French goods whether they come safe, when, & where they are to be exhibited &c &c &c I have some friends who will buy caps I think.

I wrote to Maria that you would send Belles by the Horse Packet because you remembered you asked me not to send my box ^{the letter} here, it was ^{all printed & bound} ~~published~~ ^{not} ~~the~~ ^{very} ~~new~~ ^{not} after the fair that you might do so.

This is of no consequence dear only I wish to excuse myself for giving a false account by showing I had reason for what I did. I shall send my parcel forthwith & if you think best will put a Bill into it, or not, just as you say

I am very anxious to see all the children's books that come in this French box, Maria told me in her letter that she had made an exchange with the Editor of Le Puck for my Chilod's Friend & I have since seen the numbers in the box of goods & I want to see it ^{very} much, if you will tell me where to send for the parcel I will send or leave it the necessity when the gaily will be here. I want to see them before I send my numbers to France which I shall do directly;

My greatest wish at present is to see you all I have a real can fab, or saw won or something of the sort. Let me hear from you if I do not see you soon. Was very off lately
